Matthew 11:25-30 Jesus invited the people saying, “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.”

Reflection & Living Stewardship

Both the first reading and the Gospel today speak of hospitality and welcome. Our ministers of hospitality are a most visible example of using one’s time and talents to welcome the people of God. But the Gospel assures us that all who give even just a “cup of cold water” to one of His lowliest ones will be rewarded.

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish whose open hands are willing to share what they have been given so that God’s people are fed and their needs met.

Charismatic Prayer Group

He Always Provides + Protects You

Ask 1,000 people to define happiness and you'll probably get 1,000 different answers. For me, real, long lasting happiness comes from the priceless things in life -- health, family, friends, and faith! Ice cream is temporary; Jesus is forever!!

Our next meeting is Monday, July 3 at 7:30PM in the Church. Be a friend - bring a friend. Call 516-993-9672 for more information and prayer requests.

“Whatever you do for one of these, the least of my sisters and brothers, you did it for me.”

This week the Pantry could use eggs noodles, tomato paste, pasta sauce, mixed fruit, vegetable soup, coffee, boxed milk, Jell-O, icing, mayonnaise, sugar, macaroni and cheese and laundry soap.

As we are inundated with string beans and pasta, please do not bring those items until further notice. We are so grateful for all that you do to help those in need.

I have good news for all parishioners! I will be going on my summer vacation at the end of June and the first two weeks of July. You will be free of corny jokes, complaints about the Mets and the Jets, harassment of Yankee fans, and other such disturbances. The parish is in the good hands of Father Jim, Father Ciya, Deacon Tom and all around expert Steve Descovich, “associate pastor.” We also expect a wonderful young priest, Father Emmanuel from India to assist us in July and August, and look forward to the arrival of Father Denis Sweeney, CSSR in September. He will be a great a blessing to our parish community.

I am planning on a week in the Outer Banks and then some time in the Poconos with my family and friends. The horses in North Carolina have petitioned the governor that I not be allowed to ride any of them! I am also banned from all whitewater rafting in eleven states. I have thought about hang-gliding, but the hike up the hills to take off is a bit much to consider. I know the mosquitos of Nags Head have been Facebooking about the anticipated tasty Irish dinner soon to arrive.

I have always liked the song Morning Has Broken popularized by Cat Stephens. Stephens found the song in a hymnal, liked the lyrics and music, adapted it a bit, and it went to become an enormous hit. Morning has Broken is the best-known work of Eleanor Farjeon, children’s author and poet. It was written in 1931 for an old Scottish tune called Bunessan, a village on the Island of Mull. As I think about vacations, I love the phrase from the song God’s recreation of the new day. The word recreation might make us think of our school days and that wonderful time when the bell rang and we would run outside to the schoolyard and have recreation time. In the song, the word is pronounced re-creation. To be re-created is to be renewed, refreshed, to be reborn.

From the vast and empty void, God created the wonder and glory of the universe. From the clay of the earth, God breathed life and created human beings in His image and likeness. And on the seventh day He rested and God gave us the sabbath. The sabbath to my mind is less about a day and more about a spirit of being refreshed and re-created. All of us can grow weary and tired from the realities of day-to-day life. We can begin to fail to see that every day and every moment is a precious gift from God.

Each of us has our own way of entering into Sabbath - some people exercise, run marathons, walk for miles, golf, hike and fish. Others choose to read a book, see a movie, listen to music, take long naps, watch a show, or just sit and be. A sabbath can be a month or fifteen minutes of quiet time that refreshes. I know that not everybody can get away for a vacation, but everybody can sabbath, pause, rest and recharge our batteries.
I think a good sabbath, a healthy vacation, is a combination of enjoying the gifts that God has given us, sharing time with those we love and taking some time to be alone, and pause to pray. Psalm 46 speaks to re-creation: Be still and know that I am God. I love the words that Jesus speaks to the apostles when they return from their first public acts of ministry: He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. It is my hope that all of us can find some leisure time, some sabbath, to grow still and rest with the Lord.

Mine is the sunlight,
mine is the morning
Born of the one light,
   Eden saw play
Praise with elation, praise every morning
God's re-creation of the new day.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: New York Blood Center Declares Blood Emergency
NYBC urges the public to donate to replenish the community’s critically low blood supply.

New York, NY (June 26, 2017) – New York Blood Center (NYBC) has declared a blood emergency and is asking the public to please find time to donate blood at a NYBC donor center or convenient blood drive to help replenish the community’s blood supply. Recent national tragedies are reminders that it is imperative for NYBC to always have an adequately stocked blood supply to respond when communities are faced with patient traumas or other events that require life-saving blood products.

Page 7 has SMT Blood Drive Information
In order to maintain a safe blood supply a seven-day inventory of all types must be continually replenished. O negative blood donors are considered “universal,” and their blood type is needed most readily in trauma situations and emergency departments across the country. Due to its high demand, O negative blood is in short supply and NYBC encourages individuals with this blood type to consider stepping forward and donate. Our local blood supply has reached a critically low level, with under a two-day supply of O negative, B negative, and A negative.

As we head into the summer months, we are reminded of how essential it is that our community maintains steady participation in blood donations. The best preparation for an unpredictable tragedy is having blood on hospital shelves in advance. This is key to potentially saving lives.

We celebrate American Independence Day on the Fourth of July every year. We think of July 4th, 1776 as a day that represents the DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE and the BIRTH OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AS AN INDEPENDENT NATION. On July 4th, 1776 the 13 colonies claimed their independence from England, as an event which eventually led to the formation of the UNITED STATES. Today the original copy of the DECLARATION is housed in the NATIONAL ARCHIVES in WASHINGTON D.C. and July 4th has been designated a national holiday to commemorate the day THE UNITED STATES LAID DOWN ITS CLAIM TO BE A FREE AND INDEPENDENT COUNTRY.

Of course, there will be fireworks, burgers, patriotic music, and beer everywhere. But there are also plenty of unique ways to add something new and interesting to this year’s activities. GO BACK WHERE IT ALL STARTED. Meet some of the founding fathers at the brand new MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION in Philadelphia, which is dedicated to telling the story of the American Revolution in the city where the Declaration of Independence was written. There is a huge collection of revolutionary weapons, theater experiences and historical moments brought to life.

AMERICA! GOD BLESS HER! Wherever you spend this July 4th holiday weekend, be your backyard, park, beach or maybe a tour of the Bethpage Restoration Village, keep in mind this of incredible country we live in. We are a free nation! We fought hard and long to keep our right to free speech, press and religion. We continue to fight for these rights, even now - today! FLY THE FLAG! Place your hand over your heart when you hear the NATIONAL ANTHEM! SAY A PRAYER FOR AMERICA and our POLICE and MILITARY guarding us this weekend.

"Let the rising generation be inspired with an ardent love of country, an unquenchable thirst for liberty, and a profound reverence for the Constitution and the Union. Let American youth never forget that they possess a noble inheritance, bought by the toils and sufferings and blood of their ancestors."
- Joseph Story, Associate Justice Supreme Court of United States.

The Respect Life Committee wishes everyone a safe and happy Fourth of July.

During the week leading up to the Feast of Corpus Christi, the Blessed Sacrament was in the Monstrance in front of the Tabernacle in the prayer area between 4:00PM and 7:00PM. From your visits to the chapel, it seemed that we had a pretty good response during these periods of adoration.

I have the thought of making this a regular practice on Fridays, but I want to get a sense if there would be parishioners interested in spending some time in front of the Blessed Sacrament. I am reluctant to do this if very few come to be present before Christ throughout much of the time. Let me know by email what you think about this: woodscssr@aol.com

The Time Keeper by Mitch Albom

From the author who’s inspired millions worldwide with books like Tuesdays with Morrie and The Five People You Meet in Heaven comes his most imaginative novel yet, The Time Keeper, a compelling fable about the first man on Earth to count the hours.

Told in Albom's signature spare, evocative prose, this remarkably original tale will inspire readers everywhere to reconsider their own notions of time, how they spend it, and how precious it truly is.

Our next book will be Our Lady of Fatima by William Thomas Walsh. I thought this book appropriate since this is the 100th anniversary of the appearances of the Blessed Mother at Fatima. It was written in 1954 and is consider the classic account of Fatima. It is available on Amazon.

The Youth Ministry would like to thank so many of you who contributed clothing, shoes, stuffed animals, and toys. Because of your response, we collected 4,319 pounds at 20 cents per pound resulting in a check for $863.80!!!

Thank you to Father Pat for allowing us to have this fundraiser. These proceeds will go toward funding the charities we have planned for the fall including the purchase of an adaptive trike for a handicapped child for Christmas!

Many thanks again, St. Martin of Tours!  - Diana Hughes
